

New England Chapter Society of Architectural Historians

NESAH Student Symposium June 26, 2021 Program

Time: 9:15 till 4:00 PM (EST)

Date: Saturday June 26, 2021

Virtual Event on Zoom

9:15 welcome and introduction

9:30-11:00 Panel 1 – Empire-building and Colonialism

1	Rachel Hirsch (Harvard University) 9:30-10:00	Building Burhanpur: Subimperial Patronage at the Edge of Empire
2	Alexandru Zaharia (Mass Art) 10:00-10:30	Brancovan Architecture: Romania's Legacy Against Colonialism
3	Rose Kuo (Boston College) 10:30-11:00	The Forms, Functions, and Symbolisms of Shinto Shrines in Colonial Taiwan 1895-1945

11-11:15 coffee break

11:15-12:45 Panel 2 – Social and Political Identity

1	Ciprian Buzila (Brown University) 11:15-11:45	Imagining the Modern Nation: Architect Nicolae Ghika-Budesti and the Neo-Romanian Style
2	Sarah Hutcheson (Harvard University) 11:45-12:15	"My groves, my echoes:" Gender, Politics, and Poetry in the English Landscape Garden at Marble Hill House
3	Emilie Flamme (Amherst College) 12:15-12:45	Soviet Microdistrict Courtyards in Contemporary Russia: Sites of Connection and Community Across Four Russian Cities

12:45 -1:45 – Lunch break

New England Chapter Society of Architectural Historians

1:45 - 3:45 –panel 3-Networks and Cultural Connections

1	Courtney Lesoon (MIT) 1:45-2:15	Learning as a Formative Force of Urbanism in the Early Islamic World (622–1072 CE)
2	Christina Shivers (Harvard University) 2:15-2:45	Extraction by Design: McGill’s Minimum Cost Housing Group and the Case of Sulphurized Concrete
3	Annalee Grace Fuller (Northeastern University) 2:45-3:15	Metabolism in Japanese Architecture: A Multidisciplinary Response to Reconstruction
4	Troy Sherman (Clark Art Institute) 3:15-3:45	“The Disneyland of Design”: Architecture and its Environments in Aspen, 1970

3:45-4:00 Closing Remarks

Contact us

If you require any further information, please email nesah@bu.edu